

I support Indiana's do not call list and want the list to remain as is. After all I pay for my phone service not the persons calling me.